

Hillfield Strathallan College

Here Excellence is a Way of Life

MEDIA RELEASE

Attention: News Directors
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 20, 2009

HILLFIELD STRATHALLAN COLLEGE COMMUNITY TO SUPPORT THE HAITI EARTHQUAKE RELIEF EFFORTS WITH SPECIAL COMMUNITY DAY
The students, faculty and staff will participate in a College-wide dress-down day on Thursday, January 21, 2010.

Hamilton, ON – On Thursday, January 21, the students, faculty and staff of Hillfield Strathallan College will join together in a College-wide dress-down day in support of disaster-relief in Haiti. The HSC community is encouraged to wear red and blue, the colours of Haiti, to show support and solidarity.

Recently Headmaster, Dr. Matthews spoke to the student body, as well as faculty and staff, about the unfolding catastrophe in Haiti. In response to this devastating tragedy the College-wide dress-down day already scheduled for Thursday, January 21 will be in support of the people of Haiti, and all of the money raised will be donated to the Canadian Red Cross Haiti Earthquake Fund.

Hillfield Strathallan College is a not-for-profit independent day school. Since 1901, Hillfield Strathallan College has served the Hamilton and Golden Horseshoe area by providing young people with extraordinary educational opportunities. It offers an enriched academic, arts and athletic program, through its four schools, from early Montessori ages and JK to Grade 12.

Now in its second century, Hillfield Strathallan College remains committed to excellence achieved through a broad approach to education that integrates academic training, character development, and social skills to nurture the whole student. It encourages its students to good citizens, strong leaders, and lifelong learners.

For more information, visit: www.hsc.on.ca

Media Contact:

Marianne Matthews
Communications Manager
P. 905-389-1367, Ext. 192
marianne.matthews@hsc.on.ca